

Work-related temperament scales

These tools assess work-related temperament and can help develop individual transition components of the IEP for students with disabilities. An example is:

- The Work Adjustment Inventory (WAI)